Chair McGinley addresses the Board concerning attendance for meetings, especially since there are several use variances already scheduled for 2026.

Mr. Ryan questions who determines how many members make up a Board. MLUL. He also asks how many alternates are allowed. Our ordinance allows for 7 voting members and 2 alternates.

MLUL says 3-4 alternates are allowed. Zoning official has consulted with Township manager about revising the current ordinance to allow for a 3rd alternate. Board discusses the option and viability of requesting to have 4 alternates. Decision is to suggest the amendment to ordinance will read that the Board can elect to have up to 4 alternates with the Council appointing a 3rd as of now. The Zoning Officer will make the request of the change in ordinance to the Town Council.

Mr. Ryan comments on his question and answer from the Town Council during the December 1st meeting about how the review of ordinances was progressing.

Executive Session Begin 7:52 to discuss personnel matters; Board ended executive session 8:09 pm.
