

Verona Public Library & the Multicultural Inclusion and Accessibility Advisory Committee invite all ages to celebrate Black History

Saturday, February 17th
1 – 3:00 pm

Featured Speaker

William M. Brown III, FAIA, NOMAC

Join us for a day of crafts, refreshments and a special presentation by Verona resident and renowned architect, William M. Brown III.

Brown will share his journey as a professional, including how he got his start at the first African-American architectural firm in the City of Newark, NJ, and how he always prioritized community service.

Families are invited to enjoy this special afternoon of events at Verona Public Library. We hope to see you there!

17 Gould Street | Verona, NJ 07044

973-857-4848

www.veronalibrary.org

